Bird Beak Buffet (source: California Academy Of Sciences)

Different birds have different beaks and eat different things. Learn more about the specific shapes of beaks and why each one is perfect for each bird to use when visiting their bird buffets!

Take it one step further and experiment with different utensils at home to pick up foods you eat (ex: a pair of tongs for spaghetti, a fork for soup, chopsticks for a cheeseburger)...they aren't all efficient, are they?! We've adapted based on our needs - so have birds!
