

Free Printable: Proud Of My Flag (Page 1 of 2)

Any one person has many flags to be proud of! We each live in a home, which is located in or near a city, which is located in a state, which is part of a country. Each of these locations can have their own flag to represent it. Can you help Kazoo trace the colored lines to the correct flag for the location? Then practice your writing by tracing the names of the locations. Lastly, trace the teal line to page 2, write your address, and create a flag for your home and family!
