

Parent Guide: Robots – Create (Day 2 of 3)

Robot Troubleshooting, Recycled Robot, The Robot Dance

1

Robot Troubleshooting

Troubleshooting is a key skill, because let's face it...robots, toys, and life often don't go as expected. Teach your kids the tech of troubleshooting, but also the art of resilience, determination, and repair!

Supplies Needed:

- various broken toys or mechanical items
- q-tips
- oil
- a screwdriver
- a magnifying glass

Recycled Robot

Reuse what you have to make something new...bonus points if the joints move!

Supplies Needed:

- cardboard boxes and tubes of varying sizes
- tin foil, gray duct tape, or gray paint
- buttons, straws, other craft items
- scissors
- masking or clear tape
- glue

The Robot Dance (source: Les Mills Born To Move via YouTube)

"Show me your favorite robot pose!"

A great, guided aerobic exercise to get those hearts pumping and minds imagining all at the same time. "Dance, dance, dance, dance...dance like a robot."
